

Thursday, November 19, 2015
 National Arts Centre, Panorama Room

Paris en décembre? Why Canadians should care about the outcome of the Paris meeting on climate

5:30 pm to 6:00 pm | Registration

Part One – The Global Perspective

6:00 pm to 6:05 pm | Welcome by Debra Kerby, Canadian Feed The Children, and Julia Sánchez, CCIC.

6:05 pm to 6:10 pm | Opening Remarks by the Honorable Nicolas Chapuis, French Ambassador.

6:10 pm to 6:45 pm | Panel discussion:

- His Excellency Mr. Nicolas Chapuis, French Ambassador
- Her Excellency Yvonne V. Walkes, High Commissioner of Barbados
- Mr. Nebiat Getachew Assegid, Minister Counsellor, Ethiopian Embassy
- Mr. Cristian Cordova, Counsellor for Commercial and Economic matters, Peruvian Embassy

6:45 pm to 7:00 pm | Q & A with the audience

Part Two – The Canadian Perspective

7:00 pm to 7:05 pm | Opening remarks Aurore Fauret and Clayton Thomas-Muller, 350.org.

7:05 pm to 7:45 pm | Panel discussion:

- Don McCabe, President of the Ontario Farmers Association (OFA) and board member of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture
- Andrea Peart, Health, Safety and Environment Officer, Canadian Labour Congress, and Chair of board of the Climate Action Network Canada
- David Chernushenko, Councillor for Capital Ward, City of Ottawa
- Michael Cleland, Senior Fellow, University of Ottawa's Collaboratory on Energy Research
- Eriel Derange, Communications Manager, Athabasca Chipewyan First Nation and Executive Assistant to Chief Allan Adam

7:45 pm to 8:00 pm | Q & A with the audience

Part Three – Future Perspectives

8:00 pm to 8:25 pm | Short remarks from :

- Representative of the Liberal Party of Canada (TBC)
- Elizabeth May, Leader of the Green Party.
- Nathan Cullen, NDP Environment Critic
- Representative of the Conservative Party of Canada (TBC)

8:25 pm to 8:30 pm | Closing remarks

8:30 pm to 9:30 pm | Networking Reception